Sub: Interim order dated 06.05.2017 in Civil Suit No. 538/17 titled BSNL vs Sanchar Nigam Executives Association & Ors - Regarding

Sir,

This is to inform that an interim order dated 06.05.2017 in Civil Suit No. 538/2017 titled BSNL Vs Sanchar Nigam Executives Association & Ors has been passed by Ld. Additional District Judge, Patiala House Court, New Delhi, wherein the Hon'ble ADJ has passed the following order:

"... all the defendants are hereby restrained from further intensifying the ongoing strike so as to impede the functioning of BSNL. All the defendants, their members, sympathizers and other associates are hereby directed to physically remove themselves from the premises / boundary wall of the properties owned by BSNL in Delhi and other places. The defendants and their affiliate, associates, employees are injuncted from obstructing the ingress and egress of BSNL officials, general public in any manner and they shall not directly or indirectly to take any step so that smooth functioning of BSNL services are effected in any manner

However at this juncture in so far as perse protests in the form of hunger strike are on since 25.04.2017, prayer of placing complete ban on its strike is not being allowed at this ex-parte stage".

In view of the above, all the Circle Heads/SSA Heads are requested to bring the above order to the notice of all employees including office bearers/members of the Associations/Unions for immediate compliance in letter and spirit.

Yours faithfully,

(A.K. Sinha)
