Sub: Transfer in the CAO grade on long stay basis - regarding
Ref: BSNL No. 2-1/2011 SEA BSNL dated 18.4.2013

Sir,

This is with reference to BSNL SEA section letter cited above wherein five CAOs have been ordered for transfer to Maharashtra Circle on the basis of their long stay in Tamilnadu Circle.

While only three CAOs (one from Maharashtra circle and two from BSNL CO) are coming on own cost transfer to Tamilnadu Circle, five CAOs are being sent out of Tamilnadu Circle. We have been questioning, for long, the rationale behind such policy wherein more number of Accounts & Finance people is always sent out of Tamilnadu in the name of long stay than the number of incoming officers. In the present case, Smt. V. Usha had gone to Maharashtra on own request and is coming back on own request. So there is no question of replacement for her. Thus to accommodate only two officers in Tamilnadu, five officers are being sent out, which is neither justified nor reasonable.

We would therefore request you to kindly intervene and render justice by causing modification of the transfer orders cited under reference, by transferring out only two officers from Tamilnadu on long stay basis.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rakesh Sethi)
