

Gurus and disciples – II

(An imaginary conversation)

Disciples: Pranaam Guruji.

Guru 1 : Aashirvaad to all of you disciples. It seems you have come with some doubts ?

Disciple 1: No Guruji. We were so shocked to see that you had issued a wild threat to the management with serious consequences if the terms of career settlement with us is diluted in any manner. Why sudden outburst on your part Guruji ?

Guru 1 : How long we can show submissiveness and toe the line of management in every thing ? We had welcomed MTRR, DGMRR and BSNLMSRR. Should we not at least pretend to be a firebrand once in a while? At least some of you disciples are so loyal to us. But there are some people who start questioning us here and there. Already some have taken up with the management some issues on which we compromised and some are in struggle path. If we do not put up such a stand people may leave our mutt elsewhere.

Disciple 1 : Hail great Guru's wonderful ideas. But Guruji, so it is only for that sake?

Guru 2 : Why? We may call for a big agitation on that issue.

Guru1 : And later we will withdraw the agitation.

Disciple 2: In the manner we withdrew our call for repatriation to DoT?

Guru1 : Exactly. You got the point. But now if we call for an agitation we will not withdraw just like that.

Guru2 : Yes. We will withdraw only if the management discusses some compromise stand with us.

Guru 1 : Yes. Like the compromise stand discussed with us on MT recruitment.

Disciple 1: What happened to the compromise stand on MT?

Guru 2 : It seems the management had forgotten it.

Disciple 2: Yes Guruji. We were about to ask that. You had written to the management that the management discussed a compromise stand with you and you hope the management remembers. What is the compromise stand on MT that you discussed with management ? We had not heard of it.

Guru 1 : Why do you want to know now ? After all, management has forgotten. You also have not heard of it. We are happy. We will also forget it.

Disciple1: But great Gurujis. What is the gain we have in calling for agitations and calling it off now and then ?

Guru1: Ha.. Ha.. it is only time pass.

Guru2: Yes. And in that period you forget the losses we had in our compromise with management in DGMRR, BSNLMSRR and MTRR and hope we are going to fight for your betterment.

Guru1: Then we will call off the agitation.

Disciple : Great Gurus!. One last doubt for today.

Guru 1 : Yes. Ask it.

Disciple : You had written to the management that we have survived the threats, intimidations and arrogance of the British etc ..

Guru 1: Yes .

Disciple : But none of us including you or I were born when the British ruled our country.

Guru1&Guru2 : Hmmm...
